

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Secretariado Uruguayo de la Lana (Uruguayan Wool Secretariat) gives proof that due to Uruguay's temperate climate and rainfall values, native grasses constitute the forage basis for sheep production. Sheep have access to suitable and sufficient feed and clear water in the open air all year round.

Our Organization offers its cooperation and support to accompany whoever wishes to visit sheep production systems in different areas of the country to check this condition.

Ing.Agr. Gabriel Capurro
General Manager
gcapurro@sul.org.uy

Montevideo, November 2008

Rambla Baltasar Brum 3764
11800 Montevideo - Uruguay